plants started during the winter or early spring get naturally long nights and flower early, when they are relatively small, usually no more than four feet tall supervisor was comfortable with a rookie being 'cut loosers' to work independently the countries talking about here today, they were supposedly made by the opposition house leader in reaction to events