we’re going to put this economy back on a sound footing so we can not only pay our bills but meet the other needs that we have in education, health care, the environment and social security.

while I do not provide extra moisturizing or softening of my scalp