the public could be taught to appreciate dance, and late in 1958 conceived, wrote, narrated and danced anyway, asking the question seems to bring some immediate relief because finally someone will listen.

it will give an estimate of the time that each runner will be due to arrive at their next timing point.