most people having a regular regimen of prescription medicine must go to the pharmacy at the very least once monthly, sometimes more often i refused to take this medication, my doctor gives me a hard time but i will not take it people die accidentally in the truest sense of the word: they don’t remember how many drinks they had, or how many pills they took.