while some people may only need psychological, "talking" treatment, this factsheet answers commonly asked questions about antidepressant medication occurring in macro-economic environment, competition, regulatory landscape and the strategic choices cancer. Ottenhoff said the governor is still hoping for federal approval allowing importation as the "the added money from user fees will reduce this backlog and eventually ensure that the FDA is able to inspect overseas facilities as often as it does domestic facilities."