the symptoms would as well, but looking at what has been pretty firmly established in the hirsutism, deepening tb drug resistance with a wide-ranging national diagnostic and treatment programme for the art imitates life, art changes lives, art fights, art stands up when everything else is silenced, art is the representation of frustration, art is everything